HOTEL SEVILLA

A journey through our spaces with soul

Only YOU is not a hotel brand, but a lifestyle, in which travel plays a very important role to enjoy and continue discovering ourselves as people. Each trip is a world of experiences and in each one we discover a part of ourselves.

We were inspired by the essence of Seville, by that "I don't know what I know" that this magical city transmits. When it is said that Seville has a special color, we are not only referring to its chromatic range. Because it is not the color that defines it, but the essence of the elements that make it up: flowers, parties, people, landscapes and even smells. Small intangible details that make Seville a city that gives you goosebumps.

Ready for your next trip to the Andalusian capital?
